

Membership Categories

Distributor Company Member: A promotional products company whose customers are the end buyer (general public). Distributors are the middle person in between the end buyer and the supplier/manufacturer of promotional products.

Supplier Company Member: A promotional products company who manufactures and sells products to distributors who in turn sell to their end buyer customers. Supplier companies do not sell direct to the end buyer and are allowed to exhibit at our trade shows.

Business Services Company Member: A company who does not sell promotional products and whose customers are both suppliers and distributors in the industry. Example: a kitting company.

Multiline Rep Company Member. An independent representative who owns their own company representing lines from different industry suppliers.

Super Senior Company Member: A distributor company sole proprietorship (no other sales reps) whose age is 70+. Free lifetime membership.
